

TODD KLEITZ MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP FOR FLOODPLAIN ADMINISTRATORS/MANAGERS

The Todd Kleitz Memorial Scholarship is a scholarship opportunity through the Association of Montana Floodplain Managers (AMFM) for up to two Floodplain Administrators/Managers to attend the annual AMFM conference. The scholarship will include conference registration fees and hotel accommodation for up to three nights during the conference at the predefined hotel and conference rate.

Eligibility: Any person serving the role as Floodplain Administrator and/or having floodplain management responsibilities on behalf of their community is eligible to apply. Only people employed directly by a community participating in the National Flood Insurance Program are eligible to apply.

How to Apply: Provide responses to the questions on this form and submit to AMFM Board via email (Sean O'Callaghan at sean.ocallaghan@gallatin.mt.gov). Applications must be received by January 15, 2026.

Selection:

Preference will be given to applicants who submit an abstract to present at the conference and/or are within their first three years of having floodplain management responsibilities. The AMFM Board will review applications and notify successful applicants prior to the "Early Bird" conference registration deadline.

Applicant Information

Name:

Position Title:

Community:

Email:

Phone:

Are you planning on presenting at this year's conference? Yes No

Please provide responses to the questions on the following page and sign.

Questions:

1. How long have you been a Floodplain Administrator or been tasked with floodplain management responsibilities in the community you serve?

2. What are the primary challenges you face in your position as a Floodplain Administrator?

3. How will attending the conference benefit you in your position and the community you serve?

By: _____ Date: _____